Vienna, May 11.

THE Emperor has put off his Journey to Laxemburg till the 16th of this Month, and from thence he will go to Neuſtadt and Oedenburg to be preſent at the Dyet; In the mean time the Turks labor hard by their Agents which they have among the Malecontents, to divert them from the thoughts of an Accommodation with the Emperor, and to perſwade them to put themſelves under the protection of the Grand Signior, who they ſay will not only maintain them in the enjoyment of what they at preſent Poſſeſs, but obtain for them the Reſtitution of their Eſtates, which have been Sequeſtred by the Emperors Command; but it is to be hoped that the Hungarians who have of late ſhown ſo great a diſpoſition to do what in them lies, for the reſtoring the publick Peace of that Kingdom, and that the Emperor at their deſire has called a Dyet to conſult of the means to effect that great end, will not ſuffer themſelves to be influenced by theſe inſinuations, which would certainly enſnare them into great miſchiefs.

Hague, May 23. The Spaniſh Envoye, had yeſterday a long Conference with the States Deputies for Forreign Affairs, and this day he was in Conference with the Emperors Miniſter. The Prince of Orange has by Letter acquainted the States-General, that he purpoſes to be here in few days. From Antwerp we have Advice, that three or four ſmall Frigats having Commiſſion from the Elector of Brandenburg, were cruiſing on the coaſt of Flanders, and that they had taken two or three Veſſels belonging to Oſtend, and carried them to Dunkirk.

Bruſſels, May 23. Two days ſince arrived here an Expreſs from the Prince de Chimay Governor of Luxemburg, who brought an account, that the French had ſummoned moſt of the Towns and Caſtles in that Province to do Homage to their King; we are likewiſe told, that they have formed Pretenſions upon the Countrey that lies between the Sambre and the Meuſe. The Spaniſh and French Commiſſioners have had ſeveral Meetings at Courtray, and we are informed, that the latter Demand the Town and Countrey of Aloſt, or an Equivalent for it, and that the Prince of Parma has ſent an Expreſs to Spain to give the Court an account thereof. His Highneſs arrived here this Evening, having changed the thoughts he had of going to Mons, for that he thought it convenient to be here, at the Aſſembly of the States, who are going to meet, for the renewing the Impoſition upon Beer, &c.

Paris, May 24. The Moſcovite Ambaſſadors are leaving this Court; the 16th Inſtant the Sieur de Bonneville, Introductor of Ambaſſadors, brought them very conſiderable Preſents from the King. It is reported that the Sieur du Queſne, who ſailed ſome days ſince from Thoulon with ſix men of War and two fireſhips, has Orders to go with that Squadron to Conſtantinople, to fetch home the French Ambaſſador, who has not yet had his Audiences of the Grand Signior or the Grand Vizier, by reaſon the Grand Vizier will not receive him in the manner his Predeceſſors uſed to be. The 21 Inſtant the Envoye of Sweden had Audience of the King; we do not yet hear that that Crown has obtained any ſatisfaction in the Matter of the Dutchy of Deux-ponts.

Falmouth, May 12. The 9th Inſtant put to Sea the Elizabeth of this place, John Clay Maſter, bound for Newfoundland; and the next day the Philip of New-York for the Barbados. The ſame day was ſeen off of this Harbor, two of His Majeſties Frigats cruiſing to the Weſtward.
